

Thank you to everyone who participated in our first telephone town hall on education. I greatly enjoyed the opportunity to engage in a conversation with you about your thoughts on how to enhance the education of our nation's most important resource: our children.

After receiving overwhelmingly positive feedback about the first telephone town hall I decided to hold a second one. During the second town hall we will be discussing a broad range of issues, including the high cost of gas, the war in Iraq, and other topics that are impacting the lives of so many of you.

If you would like to join the call, please feel free to call in on our special listening line at 240-696-7137, extension 11686#.

I'll be posting several of the most frequently asked questions on my blog, along with recordings from the telephone town hall.

Stay tuned!
